

MMIG Cookie Policy

When data is provided to MMIG Ltd. (hereinafter "us" or "we"), we use it solely for the purposes for which it was provided.

Confidential information will not be disclosed to third parties.

We recognise that your information is valuable and we take all reasonable measures to protect it whilst in our care.

Our cookie policy

Apart from the additional information provided by this update, the operation of the home mmihub.com website has not changed or being modified.

The details contained within this page is provided to ensure you are fully aware of the 'cookies' we have in use, allowing you to make an informed choice about your continue acceptance of them.

What are cookies?

To provide you with a good experience we sometimes place small files known as cookies on your computer. A cookie is a text file made up of letters and numbers that allows us to distinguish your browser/device from another visitor's browsers/device.

To learn more about cookies and how to manage them via your browser/device please visit aboutcookies.org

What do we use cookies for?

Currently across mmihub.com we make use of cookies to help manage the site and your visitor experience. These cookies may be used to collect analytics of non-personal visitor activity outlines, manage personal preferences, provide relevant or timely information to you or offer focused advertisements.

Cookies set across our site, set by our third party partners or us, can be in the form of session or persistent cookies, and may use different technologies, such as JavaScript or Flash.

If you would like to 'opt out' of the cookies set by our site, this can be accomplished on a cookie-by-cookie basis subject to browser settings. You may limit site operation or functions if you limit the cookies.
